General Jordan's Operations.

Havana Correspondent N. Y. Herald. Gen. Thomas Jordan has been given the chief command in the Eastern Department, and has had a couple of ghts with the Spaniards, in which is Cuban troops acted very well and to his entire satisfaction. He has formed a large camp of instruction in the district of Holguin, and is thor-oughly organizing, drilling disciplan-ing, equiping and arming some 6000 picked men, divided into battalions of infantry and cavairy and com-panies of artillery, for he has fourteen field-pieces with him. While he is training this force, his Generals and ments, which accounts for the Spanish troops not meeting with more resistance in some of their marches. When his picked force is in that condition of efficiency he wants it to be in, Gen. Jordan will then sweep down unexpectedly upon the many scattered detachments of the over-confident Spaniards, and is hopeful of cap-turing most of them in detail.
